7 Days about David's Relationship with God, Part 6

In these 7 days, the verses come from a Psalm by David, in which he describes his relationship with Yehovah. Day 6: In today's verses, David praises his Creator God for the victories that God has given him over his enemies.

You have clothed me with strength for battle;
You subdue my adversaries beneath me. I pursue my enemies and overtake them; I do not turn back until they are wiped out. I crush them, and they cannot get up; they fall beneath my feet. You have made my enemies retreat before me;
I annihilate those who hate me. They cry for help, but there is no one to save them — they cry to Yehovah, but He does not answer them.

PSALM 18:37-41

In my published Daily Verses, you will see the name “Yehovah” in place of the word “LORD” in OT passages.

CLICK HERE for an explanation of why I make that substitution and why I changed from “Yahweh” to “Yehovah.”
